FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Sale of U.S. Government Guaranteed Loans and Sale Premiums; Rescission of Policy Statement

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

ACTION: Rescission of policy statement.

SUMMARY: As part of the FDIC's systematic review of its regulations and written policies under section 303(a) of the Riegle Community Development and Regulatory Improvement Act of 1994 (CDRI), the FDIC is rescinding its policy statement on the Sale of U.S. Government Guaranteed Loans and Sale Premiums (Policy Statement). The Policy Statement provides guidance to state nonmember banks purchasing or selling loans guaranteed by the U.S. government. The FDIC is rescinding the Policy Statement because it is outmoded and duplicative.

DATES: This Policy Statement is rescinded January 30, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: William A. Stark, Assistant Director, (202/898–6972), Kenton Fox, Senior Capital Markets Specialist, (202/898–7119), Division of Supervision; Jamey Basham, Counsel, (202/898–7265), Legal Division, FDIC, 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FDIC is conducting a systematic review of its regulations and written policies. Section 303(a) of the CDRI (12 U.S.C. 4803(a)) requires the FDIC, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and the Office of Thrift Supervision (federal banking agencies) to each streamline and modify its regulations and written policies in order to improve efficiency, reduce unnecessary costs, and eliminate unwarranted constraints on credit availability. Section 303(a) also requires each of the federal banking agencies to remove inconsistencies and outmoded and duplicative requirements from its regulations and written policies.

As part of this review, the FDIC has determined that the Policy Statement is outmoded and duplicative, and that the FDIC's written policies can be streamlined by its elimination.

The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) developed the Policy Statement to provide general supervisory guidance to insured depository institutions that originate, purchase, or sell loans guaranteed by the U.S. government. The Policy Statement also provides guidance on the accounting treatment of servicing fees and premiums associated with these loans. Each of the federal banking agencies adopted the Policy Statement, with the FDIC's original adoption taking place on December 3, 1979, and the adoption of certain amendments taking place on April 15, 1985. 1 FDIC Law, Regulations, and Related Acts" (FDIC) 5257 (1996).

In the time since the Policy Statement was adopted, the market in government-guaranteed loans has become more established and well-known, and insured depository institutions have gained experience in dealing with it. The supervisory guidance contained in the Policy Statement, which is very general in nature, is no longer necessary in light of this experience. The accounting guidance in the Policy Statement is also no longer necessary in light of subsequent clarifications in the Instructions for Preparing Reports of Condition and Income, and Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement 91.

Section 303(a) of the CDRI also requires the federal banking agencies to work jointly towards uniformity of guidelines implementing common supervisory policies. FFIEC has determined that the Policy Statement is no longer necessary in light of the above reasons, and the other federal banking agencies will also take action to rescind the Policy Statement.

For the above reasons, the Policy Statement is rescinded.

By order of the Board of Directors.

Dated at Washington, DC, this 21st day of January, 1997.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Jerry L. Langley,

Executive Secretary.
